

BUSINESS BRIEFS

MacGhee joining Carlisle and Associates

Carlisle and Associates LLC of Voorhees announced that Brenda MacGhee would be joining the health-care consulting firm in the position of assistant vice president of contracting.

MacGhee has more than 14 years of experience in health-care revenue cycle management and has a proven track record of increasing managed-care reimbursement while building positive working relationships with health plans. Prior to joining Carlisle and Associates, she worked as contract compliance manager at Cooper University Hospital, where she was responsible for assuring health plan compliance with the terms of managed care contracts. She is skilled in the development and implementation of improved revenue cycle management processes and the negotiation and resolution of complex liability claims.

In her role as assistant vice president of contracting at Carlisle and Associates, MacGhee is responsible for advising clients regarding revenue cycle management issues, participating in managed care contract negotiations with health plans and providing ongoing service and support for clients in their health plan relationships.

MacGhee

MacGhee graduated from Centenary College, with a Bachelor of Science in merchandising. She participated in the Healthcare Financial Management Association's advanced management and management series. MacGhee lives in Moorestown, with her two daughters, Amanda and Molly.

Adinolfi appointed treasurer for AAML

Adinolfi and Goldstein, P.A. senior partner and shareholder Robert J. Adinolfi was recently appointed treasurer for the American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers. To be represented by a Fellow of the American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers is to be represented by a leading practitioner in the field of family law. The 1,600 AAML Fellows across the United States are generally recognized by judges and attorneys as preeminent family law practitioners with a high level of knowledge, skill and integrity. Academy Fellows enjoy a reputation for professionalism, competence and integrity.

Adinolfi has devoted his career to family law and its related practice areas, including marital dissolution, civil unions, prenuptial agreements and tax issues. He has served as lead counsel on significant cases establishing legal precedents in the New Jersey courts, including the Aronow engagement ring case in 1987. In 2006, 2007 and 2008, New Jersey Monthly magazine named Adinolfi as a New Jersey Super Lawyer.

In addition to being a respected family law attorney, Adinolfi lectures for many legal associations in New Jersey. He is active in the community, volunteering at the Burlington County YMCA, served on the Finance Board and Strategic Planning Task Force at his parish Our Lady of Good Counsel in Moorestown, and sits on the board of Lourdes Health System Foundation. Adinolfi graduated from Bishop Eustace High School in Pennsauken, St. Joseph's University for his bachelor's degree and Rutgers University School of Law. He lives in Moorestown with his family.

Adinolfi

30 Days for $30
Fitness Study
*Free Avon Gift

856-866-0056
800 N. Church S